PRESIDENTS REPORT

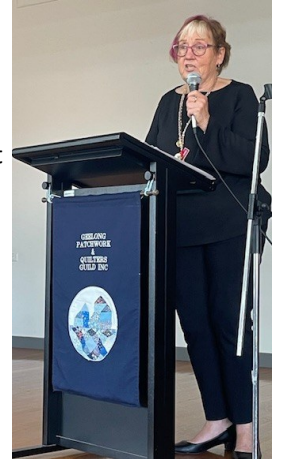

Hello Ladies,

Well I'm back and feel like I've been away for over a month, not just 3 weeks. I arrived early Saturday 25th morning, had a few hours sleep and made it to the Opening of the Exhibition at the right time, but very woolly headed with jetlag. My thanks to Carole Bosna for running the October meeting. I hear she did a great job.

But what an exhibition it was! Huge congratulations to Nicola Picken and all the Exhibition Committee for putting together such a varied and engrossing display. I keep saying we have such talent in our group, and you've all shown that once again with your quilts, your challenges, your workshop items and the items for sale on the traders' table. I thought Linda Steele did a great job opening the Exhibition, and the CWA ladies did their usual sterling job in providing refreshments for the Official Opening. A very big thankyou to all the wonderful team of helpers and volunteers, including long suffering husbands, who set up all the stands, hung the quilts, helped out with the running of the exhibition, and then took it all down again on Sunday. It was teamwork at its' best, and well co-ordinated and led by Nicola and Carol Bosna. It is a big effort from start of planning to completion at the end of an exhibition, and I'm so proud of everyone who contributed: on the committee, with volunteering, and for entering your quilts and challenge pieces. It was a great success.

My personal sincere congratulations to the prize winners of the Challenge and of the various categories of quilts, including Viewers' Choice. I won't list them in this report – they can be found further on in the newsletter. All the awarded entries were very deserving.

Having not seen the Challenge quilts at the October meeting, it was a wonderful surprise to see them all displayed at the Exhibition. Well done to all the members who participated – I loved all the various interpretations of the Ruby theme. You certainly 'rose to the challenge', pardon the pun.

So what's next? Well, there's the Christmas challenge – hopefully as many of you as possible will participate in that. Judy Bubb always comes up with something intriguing for you to tackle and we will find a prize for the best Christmas challenge piece. Find out what you need to make/do further in the newsletter. Hard to believe it's only a few more weeks to our Christmas luncheon meeting. Don't forget you need to book and pay for your boxed lunch at the November meeting. I will be working on what I can come up with to amuse you all at that meeting - be sure there will be at least ONE quiz to stimulate your brain neurones. Maybe we need to have some more carol singing as well??

We will have a few 40 Year badges to hand out at the December meeting – that will be special. Start thinking about how you're going to decorate your tables, what Christmassy clobber you can dig up to wear, and what Christmas themed quilts you can put into Show & Tell.

I had a fascinating time cruising the Rhine River from Amsterdam to Basel (Switzerland), and then the Rhone river from Lyon (what a great city that is!) to Avignon in Provence. I've seen some extraordinary World Heritage Sites on both – including the awesome Gothic Cathedral in Cologne, the equally awesome Basilica in Lyon, where the interior is all mosaics made of tiny little half inch tiles, inspirational art at the Rijksmuseum in Amsterdam, and life as it was in a working windmill in Kinderdijk. It was fabulous cruising the castle topped hills and steep vineyards of both rivers.

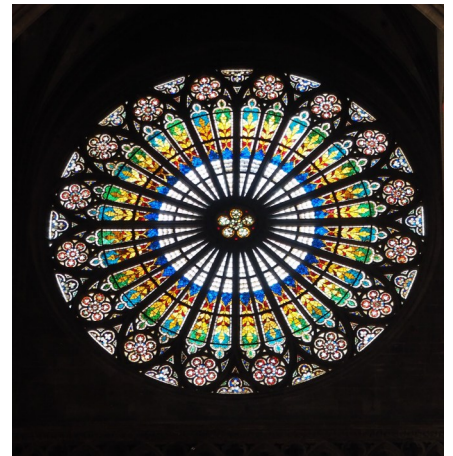

I saw so many decorative designs that could be inspirational for designing a quilt – some were mosaics, some stained glass, some were painted, many were plaster mouldings. Here is a small photo essay of some that I thought were inspiring – what do you think??

Basilica interior, Lyon

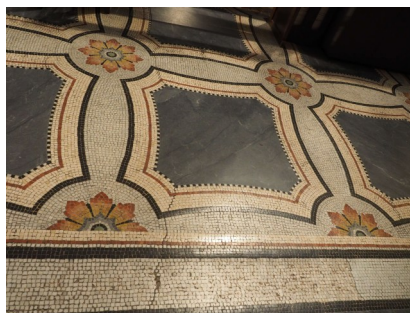

Ancient Roman mosaic at Vienne

Rose window, Strasbourg Cathedral

Wall design, Beau Jeu Church

Section of tiled floor, Basilica, Lyon

Roccoco wall moulding

I'm glad to have seen all these things, and equally glad to be back in my own bed and getting back into routine, including writing this report.

I look forward to seeing you all at the November meeting. Til then, keep stitching.

Ruby Challenge

Well it's been a pleasure to have been entrusted with organising our Ruby Celebration Challenge 2025.

Thank you so much to all those who participated and for their enthusiasm- especially those who were excited enough to submit two entries!! The display of the 28 Challenge entries at Geelong West Town Hall looked fabulous. So much talent and creativity amongst our members!!

Thank you to the three Life Members who did the judging: Jodie Arklay, Annette Packett and Jan Preston. Their awards went to Carole Bosna, Bronwyn Drehlich and Robyn Jost. Our Members who voted at the October meeting chose Robyn Jost as the winner with Nicola Picken as runner up. It was terrific to have them all present at our opening event with Linda Steele on Saturday morning, to receive their prizes.

Ruby Celebration Exhibition

How amazing was the Quilt Exhibition! The quality and variety was outstanding. I was especially excited to have a visitor point out my own quilt as one of her favourites. We had over 300 visitors and the event finished with a bang (thunder clap)!

Congratulations to the committee for all their hard work and commitment to creating such an amazing event. It was fabulous to see so many people come together to create this Quilt Exhibition. As a first time helper, I was so impressed with the number of members (and husbands) involved in helping throughout the weekend. Well done to all involved.

Craft, Cooking and Knitting Interests

My interests in sewing, knitting, cooking, preserving and needlework began when I was taught by my mother as a child/teenager growing up in the country. Apart from a year of Year 7 sewing, plus smocking and several classes in making a small quilt etc, I am self-taught.

Originally, I made most of my own clothes; a number of my children's clothes, especially smocked dresses for them. When first married, I made all of our curtains for our home.

Eight years of sewing Rock Eisteddfod costumes resulted in a different set of rules for finishing off costumes.

My interests now include: Christmas sewing and cross stitch; soft toys; knitted pram blankets; bags of various sizes; knitting for the grandchildren; jams and preserves; gardening including roses. I enjoy trying some new patterns, experimenting with some new fabrics; sharing ideas; visiting some Exhibitions; and enjoy seeing the work of very talented people.

Trip to the Royal Geelong Show

Doreen and I went to the show on the Friday. We skirted around Showmen's Alley. Doreen was tempted but with a bit of nudging we continued to the Homecraft Pavilion. We celebrated our Guild members' successes. Congratulations to all our Guild members who entered.

We had a few winners:

Bronwyn Drehlich 1st prize and Best Exhibit for her pillow.

Betty Scott 2nd Prize for her pillow.

Margaret Tembo 3rd prize for her pillow.

1st for a quilt in the recycled section

Highly Commended for a tea cosy

3rd prize for a table runner.

Sandra Herbert won Highly Commended for her pillow.

Judith Oke won Highly Commended for her pillow.

Sue Robertson won a 2nd for her pillow in the patchwork section.

Pam Planner also had a pillow entry.

After viewing the Homecraft we visited the Crafty Corner where several crafty organisations had set up displays. Then onto CWA for a cuppa and scones, jam and cream which was delicious. Especially with the good company and conversation with 2 crafty acquaintances. Actually we did a lot of chatting during the morning as we met several fellow quilters.

Onwards to the Sheep Pavilion to visit the sheep and the knitting/weaving display. We watched a Jersey cow judging. Neither of us picked the winners. What do we know about cows? We observed the horses and their riders prancing around the arena while having a rest on a bench and then visited the W.H. Simpson Pavilion and admired artworks. Walking through the Hall of Agriculture was a must to admire the fruit, vegetable and flower displays. Of course we checked out the Pigeons. They are truly impressive birds with their remarkable flying abilities!

When leaving Doreen was once again tempted by the rides and once again I nudged her on.

So we had a lovely day, pleased that we were able to resist the temptation of the rides and show bags, staying focused on all the other delights the show has to offer.

Christmas Challenge

Just when you thought the challenges this year were over.....think again! Sorry. (Well, not really)

We have a little challenge for you. At our November meeting, small parcels will be handed out, each with instructions included.

The task is simple:

Using the contents of your parcel, create something that you know will be used on Christmas Day.

Bring your finished creation to our December Christmas meeting. There will be a Member's Choice Prize awarded to the best entry.

Get ready to spark your creativity and make this Christmas extra special!

October Guest Speaker Jo Grant “Coordinated, Colourful and Convenient”

A colourful display supplied by These Clever Hands greeted our members as we entered the October Guild meeting.

Jo and her husband John were set up to tempt us with their collection of “Coordinated, Colourful and Convenient” packs and bundles.

These packs and bundles were created by Jo as a result of wanting to spend more time stitching and quilting and less time searching for fabrics for her projects.

Jo spoke of her love of paper and machine piecing and vibrant colour quilt making which, she felt, contributed to a positive impact of one's wellness.

We were shown some of Jo's beautiful, bold coloured quilts such as “Sweet Something” and “Maybe Make This”. Quilt patterns were available for purchase.

There are no new books or magazines this month but I'm sure you will find a book or magazine you haven't read yet in the library.

This month we will be featuring books on Appliqué in honour of Dawn Holroyd, who won 1st prize Viewers' Choice for her beautiful applique quilt at our Exhibition.

Each year at our Quilt In event, we have a table or two of pre-loved books. These are either older library books or donations from those who are downsizing or decluttering their home libraries. If you are planning to do either, please consider donating your books to our Quilt In book sale. Money raised helps us purchase new books and magazines for your library. Thank you for your support.

Happy reading and sewing

We don't have many library rules but we feel we must introduce a new rule. Books and magazines are not to be removed from the Library Room. If they leave the room they must be borrowed. Thank you for your understanding of us introducing this new rule.

Our Quilt of Hexagons

Have you noticed the Hexagon quilt on the front round table as you walk into the hall? Have you made a hexagon with your name and commencement year and had it stitched to this unique historical quilt?

If you haven't, please see me for instructions and a piece of cream hexagon. I have gone through the membership list and there are a few who haven't made a hexagon. I know who you are and will be seeking you out.
